The First Vajrayana Monlam in USA
Sponsored by the Tibetan Meditation Center and
The International Buddhist Association of America
9301 Gambrill Park Road, Frederick MD 21702
Saturday, September 18, 2021
2:00 – 6:00pm

International Buddhist Association of America is pleased to announce that it has arranged for the first Vajrayana monlam to be hosted by Khenpo Tsultrim Tenzin Rinpoche of Tibetan Meditation Center in Frederick, Maryland. This auspicious event to be held on September 18, 2021, is believed to be the first of its kind, designed to include the four Vajrayana communities of Kagyu, Nyingma, Sakya and Gelug as well as Theravada and Mahayana traditions. The program will consist of presentations from participants at TMC as well as recorded messages from some of those who are unable to attend.

The event is scheduled to begin at 2:00 pm (Eastern) with introductory remarks and video messages from Vajrayana lineage leaders followed by prayers and chanting offered by the different communities. The Vajrayana monlam will be a practice of the Shakyamuni Buddha sadhana composed by His Holiness Drikung Kyabgon Chetsang Rinpoche. The practice will be led by His Eminence Chenga Rinpoche. Joining him and Khenpo Tsultrim Tenzin Rinpoche will be Kyabje Ado Rinpoche as well as Khenpo Tenzin Nyima Rinpoche and Khenpo Konchog Molam Rinpoche. Additional Theravada and Mahayana sanghas have been invited to participate as well.

Before the 6:00 pm conclusion, there will be a lamp offering to Atisha at the Enlightenment Stupa. This celebration is an opportunity to rejoice in the birth, enlightenment and passing of the Buddha as well as to dedicate merit for the benefit of world peace and the alleviation of the suffering caused by the global pandemic.

In accordance with state and local COVID guidelines, only the ordained will be participating in person at TMC. Others are invited to join by Zoom (ID 836 8416 5040 PW Monlam01). The text of the monlam will be available for viewing during the Zoom presentation. For more information see the IBAA website (ibaa.org) or the TMC website (drikungtmc.com)

IBAA and TMC hope you will join us in this rare occasion of the coming together of so many of the Buddhist traditions that share a common devotion of the dharma.
